DEAR BOOKSELLER, LIBRARIAN, PARENT/FAMILY/ FRIEND,

Paulist Press is pleased to present our 2023 Electronic Children’s Catalog. Our electronic catalog features new, recently published, and bestselling books for children of all ages. Each book’s descriptive presentation recommends an appropriate age range.

Oftentimes, children’s books make meaningful gifts and set the stage for a lifetime of reading. Paulist Press picture/illustrated books tell compelling stories that captivate a child and introduce him or her to a love of reading. We believe many of our books tell much of the story through their enchanting and unique artwork. Children’s books, no matter how simple or complex, offer a sense of joy and education. Stories teach friendship, love, values, emotions, self-worth, diversity, the Bible, seasons, and faith.

Please note, we have established links to a “look inside” the book feature for several of our new and favorite titles. Please enjoy this feature and please feel free to browse our entire catalog.

It is our hope that you will find that our selection of children’s books meets much of the criteria you desire.

Wishing you a joyful holiday season!

On Eagles' Wings

Birds of the Bible

Ellen Javernick; Illustrated by Jill Alexander

Ages
7-10

Author Ellen Javernick observed over the years that birds are common in Christian art and especially capture the imagination of young people. Her own five children often pointed out birds in the church's stained glass windows. On Eagles' Wings teaches about birds in spiritual terms by giving simple explanations of their meaning in the Bible or in legends that teach spiritual truth.

6801-9 HC 40 pp. $19.95

Saint Kevin and the Blackbird

Kenneth Steven

illustrated by Laetitia Zink

The early Celtic Christians placed great emphasis on the importance of care for God's creation, as seen in a number of beautiful and tender stories. The story of Saint Kevin and the Blackbird is perhaps the most beautiful of them all.
